PROFILE

Science and technical content writer with experience across educational textbooks, dark fantasy fiction, SEO content, ghostwriting, and science communication. I write clearly, adapt to any voice or register, and deliver accurate work on deadline. Available full-time remote.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Freelance Writer & Independent Author

Remote • 2025 – Present

- Wrote and published the Between Two Darks dark fantasy trilogy on Kobo Writing Life — manuscript development, formatting, and upload managed end to end.
- Delivered ghostwriting across fiction, nonfiction, and professional niches under NDA, writing in the client's voice through iterative revisions.
- Produced SEO-aware articles on AI, technology, science, and business topics for general audiences.
- Rewrote AI-generated drafts into natural, human-sounding copy by reworking tone, flow, and structure.
- Managed publishing workflows independently across multiple platforms without supervision.

PUBLICATIONS & EDUCATIONAL CONTENT

Author — 200-Level Plant Science & Biotechnology Textbook

University of Port Harcourt • 2025

- Eight-course textbook covering Genetics, Ecology, Biostatistics, Plant Physiology, Biological Techniques, and four additional core modules.
- Built complete learning architecture: mnemonics, MCQ drills, worked examples, active recall sections, exam traps, and Nigerian agricultural case studies.
- Managed full project lifecycle — research, writing, formatting, and revision — using ReportLab for professional PDF output.

Author — Between Two Darks Series, Books 1–3

Kobo Writing Life • 2025

- Dark fantasy trilogy independently written, formatted, and published. 13-book universe expansion in active development.

Writing Samples — Victory Writing Services Portfolio

2025

- Why Artificial Intelligence Will Not Replace Human Writers — editorial piece on AI tools and human creativity.
- The Importance of Scientific Communication — essay on bridging research and public understanding.

ADDITIONAL

- Wide reading background: dark fiction, web novels, biotech research, geopolitics. That range shows up in the work.
- High-volume output: long-form articles, serialised fiction, full textbooks, multiple short-form pieces weekly.
- Portfolio with textbook excerpts, fiction samples, and editorial writing available on request. Open to a paid trial.
